Dear Lulu,

I am well, happy and safe and I hope you all are the same.

I am just writing you this letter in the hopes that it will beat any War Department telegram you receive. I have been slightly wounded in the right fifth toe and I am now in the hospital. A couple of toes are fractured so you can see there is nothing for you to be worrying about.

Don't send me any more packages until I send for them because I am not sure I will get them otherwise.

That's about all I have to say for now so I'll sign off. Love & kisses,
